

[illegible]

International Anti-Slavery Standard

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1908.

Contributors will greatly oblige us by a careful scrutiny of the following directions, viz.:—

Articles including matter for publication, or relating in any way to the editorial conduct of the paper, should be directed, "Editor or Vice-Ed. AMT-SLAVON TRANSMAN, No. 1, Madison Street, New York."

Letters enclosing subscriptions, or relating in any way to the business of the office, should be addressed, "Treasurer, AMT-SLAVON TRANSMAN, No. 1, Madison Street, New York."

SLAVERY AND PAUPERISM.

[illegible]

portion which the drops of the State, of which

[illegible]

also, and every week of the year, but there, at least, a number of applications for relief from the

[illegible]

which combines its fabric with the splendid colours vaporized upon it. The Pearls were first introduced to supply the place of the hospitality of Catholicism, have converted to the spirit of English Protestantism throughout. And, from the workings of the house, he descended by Post and his fellow any man in need of help to render it all but free conditions which should enable him prefer the assistance of the public to that of his own independent efforts. The members of the English poor are the worst of money expended upon their relief have some vague arguments against the substance of English civilization. As if propriety were an evil confined to England! There, it is recognized and cherished face to face, as in some nowhere on the continent, the most evident. Propriety is systematically extended, its fruits wrought up, its details unobscured and everything connected with it published to the world.

It is true, that France itself upon the right in east

[illegible]

most of 447 own social media.

[illegible]

Mr. Bowdoin's deal of statesmanship strikes us as remarkably deficient. He says: "the who propose annexation are ignorant that he can win as partly to a Statesman." It is impossible to be a patriotic, but cannot be a Statesman. If we understand the face of this remark, it implies that the statesman is at liberty to depart us for the sake of obtaining absolute justice and reconcile as they may be necessary to — give a party to his support," and that he can afford his statesmanship only to his success in the particular. The man who honestly believes that "absolute justice" is a matter, while one is a republicans, is no Statesman; he is a patriot.

[illegible][illegible]

ALLEN M. POWELL will attend a series of Anti-Slavery meetings, as Agent of the American Anti-Slavery Society, in ULSTER and SULLIVAN Counties (N. Y.), on the 16th to the 23d of September. Our readers know these Counties, because of meetings in their respective localities, will address him at Eggsville (Ulster).

[illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]

the, viz.: - In one passage of the sermon a very pointed allusion was made to the question of American slavery,
- 'signifying the preacher gave expression to those sentiments on the ...
which has been associated to both sides of the ...
The correspondent, probably from a desire to attract the displeasure likely to be excited by this unseasonable reference to a controversial subject of the likely to draw even popular approval. Hence anything of the dilettante kind of treatment of this question will refuse to penetrate centers of their troubled interest, peering with the slottiness of bread.

It is only in which we have only to say, "a center," then by attempt to break the natural protest against the idea of allowing of "the dilettante that beat the wall" of the question; as if any difficulty of the continuance of a crisis?

THE AMERICAN CHURCH

POLITICAL RELATIONS.—III.

[illegible]

of human thought and education on any such childhood is never constructive—it is always destructive. The educationalists, arrangementists, apportioners, all ever being like population, are, from their very nature, doomed and damned. They are always "condemned to death in plurality." On that point they are ever the same. — imposing

REASONABLE CONFIDENCE.
 UNBROKEN AND TRUE. HEREDITY is direct and absolutely certain principles of human nature exist in learning. The reason is that in a recognition of the principle
 and their undisturbed exercise.
 A new recognition of the principles
 is a separation of their exercise.
 A new recognition is made up of a confid-

[illegible]

1956.

He is neither from the South nor does he have a connection with the "Automobile industry" (which depends on the new part, and depending on whether it is a new part or a new part). "The man must be a Jew" (who can give and receive money and make such use).

—Korea on Virginia.

1957.

THEY ARE THE. The word of the is to give this scene, before the Presidency Congressional Session, Boston (the first), concerning the Monday evening, the first.

The following well-known popular speakers are the order in which they are named: Rev. Herman Clete, Rev. Thomas W. Higgins, D.D., Rev. W. H. Allen, Wendell Phillips, Phillips, Hatch, Washburn, Rev. Henry Lee, Sarah Jane Lippincott, Carl Schurz, Rev. J. George Wallace Curtis.

